

Where do you want to go?

Stevens Creek County Park

Hidden in the foothills of Cupertino, the unique combination of recreational resources and natural beauty makes Stevens Creek Park a magnet for hikers and nature lovers.

Lake Cunningham

Lake Cunningham's wide open spaces and incredible lake in east San Jose offers something for everyone. Scouts will also get a chance to cool off at Raging Waters.

Twilight Camp at Lake Cunningham

New to the 2008 Cub Camp season is the evening Twilight Camp. It is open daily from late afternoon into early evening. This is a perfect opportunity for parents to come to camp and really engage with their Scouts.

Vasona County Park

Vasona Park is located in the heart of Los Gatos. With so many great trails and a beautiful lake, it's a prime location for a great day camp.

Homeridge Park

Tucked away in central Santa Clara, Homeridge Park is a peaceful haven in a big city. Nearby the Santa Clara International Swim Center, this is one camp you won't want to miss.

History Park at Kelly Park

History Park, south of downtown San Jose, truly offers a unique setting with old historical buildings, and Happy Hollow Zoo and Park is just moments away.

San Martin Country Park and Railroad

Where else but San Martin Country Park can you find a railroad, a barn and target practice? Located in the city of San Martin, kids from all over the council are going to love this camp.

Cub Adventure Camp at Chesebrough

This camp spends two unforgettable nights in the great outdoors with rock climbing, memorable campfires and so much more. This camp is available to boys entering their Wolf or Bear ranks for the fall of 2008.

Webelos Adventure Camp at Chesebrough

Three nights of adventure like no other. There is rock climbing, archery, BB target practice, hiking and games galore. This camp is open to boys entering their first or second year Webelos rank for the fall of 2008.
